In my opinion, the main reason why kids run away is because they don't have good problem-solving skills. Running away is an "either/or" kind of solution; it's a product of black-and-white thinking. Kids run away because they don't want to face something, and that includes emotions they don't want to deal with.

He replies, 'Those are old-fashioned clouds and a new wind has blown them away.' Now that those old clouds are gone, man imagines he can see God clearly. 'He is a God who suits man's self-indulgence, a God who is waiting to bless men in their sin.' But such a view of God is drawn from man's imagination. 4.

If we don't ask and earnestly desire to be healed, God won't answer. When Jesus saw a lame man who had been sick for 38 years he asked, "Would you like to get well?" That may seem like an odd question from Jesus, but immediately the man gave excuses: "I can't, sir," he said, "for I have no one to put me into the pool when the water bubbles up."

And anyway, I can feel God's presence hiking in the woods as much as in some churches. A: We all need rest and renewal; at times, even Jesus felt the need to get away from the pressures He faced. On one occasion, the Bible says, Jesus told His disciples to "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest" (Mark 6:31).
